4-H Members: Your signature indicates that you understand that you have permission to stay overnight for the purpose of caring for your livestock and that you are expected to be on your best behavior. Any improper behavior on your part will not be tolerated and your parents will be notified immediately to pick you up. You are reminded of the Edwards County 4-H Code of Conduct. Disciplinary action will follow the Code.

KANSAS 4-H CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participant in the Kansas 4-H program, you have the responsibility of representing Kansas 4-H to the public. You are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that will bring honor to you, your family and 4-H. To do that, you must:

1. Conduct yourself and your project work in a manner that is trustworthy, respectful, responsible, fair, caring and in good citizenship.
2. Be responsible for your actions by following the rules and being accountable. This includes being in assigned program locations/sessions, abiding by deadlines, times and housing arrangements. If you are unable to participate or need assistance, notify those in charge of the event/program.
3. Treat yourself, other people, animals and property with respect, using good manners, dressing appropriately and by not using profanity. You will be personally responsible for any damage caused as a result of your behavior. Know that the use of tobacco, alcohol, and non-prescribed drugs by youth is illegal.
4. Demonstrate caring for people other than yourself. Know that harassment of any type is illegal and prohibited at all 4-H event.
5. Be a good citizen by participating fully, and helping those around you have positive experiences.

We have read this form over carefully and understand the terms for which permission is granted for the 4-Her named above to stay overnight at the Edwards County Fair.
